DADE, 1679.

A Description of the Four Quarters of the Year.
And first of Winter.

Sol in ♍, ♎, ♏.

Winter Quarter (after the Astronomers Account) began the Eleventh of December, 1678. at 8 of the Clock in the morning, and continues till the 10th. of March this year 1679 So that always the first part of th^e Astronomical Winter, is in one Politick year, & the latter end thereof is in the other. At which time was the shortest day of the year, by reason of the Suns greatest declination from the Equinoctial Line.

This Season of its own disposition, is known to be cold and moist, contrary to the quality of the Summer; and in this quarter, the inward parts of Man are very hot, and being healthful, may receive plenty of food, because natural heat is now comforted, and is gone inward, and there increaseth, and maketh digestion the better.

How the Weather will be therein disposed, is noted for each day throughout the Quarter.

The Sickneses whereunto this Quarter is most enclined are Rhumes, Gouts, Pushes, Sore-eyes, Melancholy, Coughs, Catharrs, Sciatica's, Falling-Sickness, diseases proceeding of Rottenness and corrupt Humours, with divers kind of Infirmities incident among Women.

Of

A Prognostication.

Of the second Quarter of the Year, called The Spring.

Sol in γ , δ , II.

THE Spring time (being the most pleasant and wholesome Season of the Four) taketh its beginning on Monday the 10th of March, at 10 m. past 9 in the morning, when the Sun entreth into the first minute of the Equinoctial point Aries, making the dayes and nights of equal length; which quarter endeth the 10th. of June, when the Sun entreth into Cancer.

This season is naturally hot and moist, and is of the Sanguine complexion, being the most temperate and healthful time of the year, and is therefore accounted the fittest time to ease diseased Bodies in, and to restore health again in those in whom formerly it hath been decayed by any kind of evacuation.

The particular condition thereof may be seen in the daily disposition of the Season.

The infirmities of this Quarter are Melancholie, Madnesse, the Falling-Sickness, bleeding at the Nose, Hoarseness, Coughs, Itch, Scales many Vicers and small Apostumes, the Gout and pain in the Joynts, Plurisies, Dropsies, pestilent Agues,
A 3 Shortness

D A D E. 1679.

Shortness of Breath, Faintings, Pain in the Head, Eyes, and Stomach, rotten Feavers, and other strange Diseases.

Of the third Quarter of the Year, called Summer.

Sol in ♋, ♏, ♊.

Summer (accounted the third part of the Year Astronomical) taketh always its beginning at the time of the Suns entrance into the first minute of the Solstitial Sign Cancer, which is this year on Wednesday the 11. of June, at 12 at Noon, at which time he makes his greatest declination from the Equinoctial towards the North, and causeth the longest day, and shortest night in the year; and so Summer holdeth on till the 12 of September following.

In this Quarter the Stomach cannot digest such hard Meats as it will in the Winter season, for that natural heat is now distributed into the exterior parts, and man is not now so hot within as in Winter.

As for the disposition of the Weather, you may see in the daily inclination.

The Sickneses at this time are divers, as burning Agues, Plurisies, Frensies, hot Apostumes, divers pains in the head, sundry Inflammations, and new Infirmities, proceeding especially of hot cholerick humours, wherewith many will be sore molested.

Of

A Prognostication.

Of the fourth Quarter of the Year called Autumn or Harvest.

Sol in \cap , m, 7.

Autumn or Harvest (being the Fourth or last Quarter of the Year) beginneth upon Thursday the 11 of September, 31 min. after 8
at Night, the Sun then making his entrance into the first minute of the second Equinoctial Sign Libra, working the same effect that he did at his entring into Aries, that is, making the days and nights of equal length, he rising at six in morning, and setting at six at night; and this Quarter doth last until the eleventh of December
following.

The quality of this Season is naturally cold and dry, yet by reason of its mutability, it is the most unwholesome; by means whereof, it is more subject to sickness then any other: for the dregs of all diseases of the former parts of the year, will now break forth and be seen.

How the air is like to be inclined all Harvest,
may be seen in the daily disposition of the Season.

The Diseases of this Quarter are like to be many and dangerous, as Black Jaundies, Megrims,
the Falling-Sickness, Opilations in the Spleen, difficulty of Breathing, Convulsions, Dropsies, Sci-aticae, Biles, Toothach, and many more. From which, good Lord deliver us.

DADE, 1679.

*Of ECLIPSES, and particularly of such
as will be this year, 1679.*

THere will be four Eclipses this Year: viz.

One of the Sun upon the 13 of March, at 5
at Night.

Another of the Moon upon the 15 of April,
about 12 at Noon.

A third of the Sun upon the 24 of Septem- ber, at 6 at Night.

The fourth of the Moon upon the 9 of Octo- ber, at 11 in the Forenoon.

But none of these will be visible in England,
and so I will say no more concerning them.

Here

Natural

A Prognostication.

Natural Prognosticks of Pestilential and unwholsome Years.

1. When there are great numbers of Frogs, Flies, Locusts, &c. for these Creatures being ingendered of Putrefaction, shew a general disposition of the year, and constitution of the Air to Putrefaction. 2. When Worms are found in Oak-apples. 3. Great & early heats in the Spring, (and chiefly in May) without winds. 4. Great drought in Summer, continuing to the end of August, portend a Pestilential Summer the next year. 5. The Small-Pox, Purples, Feavers and Agues in the Summer, and hovering all the Winter, portend a great Pestilence the Summer following. 6. A dry March and a dry May, portend a wholsome Summer, if there be a showring April between.

Signs of a sound and pure Air.

1. A Sound and pure Air is made hot presently after the Sun-rising, and is made cold presently after Sun setting. 2. That which yieldeth a pleasant smell after Rain, clear and not evaporated, open and lightsome, and where the North-wind bloweth. 3. Where there are Easterly winds in the Mornings.

Signs of a corrupt and infectious Air.

1. A Corrupt and infectious Air is made by the often blowing of the South or South-East-wind, or by the South-West, or West-wind in the evening. 2. Where the Air is cold long after the Sun-setting. 3. Where the Air is long hot after the Sun-setting. 4. Where the Air is long close, cloudy or thick.

NATH

Natural Prognosticks for the judgment of weather.

THe foregoing Rules for the judgment of the weather are such as are deduced from the Aspects of the Planets to the Moon, and among themselves: these here following, are such as are deduced from Philosophical Aphorisms; Therefore

1. The resounding of the Sea upon the shore, and the murmur of Winds in the Woods, when the Wind is not stirring abroad doth shew Wind to follow.

2. The obscuring of the smaller Stars foreshews Tempests.

3. When Stars seem to shoot, Wind comes from that Quarter.

4. If two Rainbows appear, Rain follows: but a Rainbow appearing after Rain, signifies fair weather.

5. If the Sky be red in the morning, it is a sure token of Wind or Rain to follow, or both, for the vapors which cause that redness will soon be dissolved.

6. If the Sun or Moon look pale, look for Rain; if fair and bright, fair weather; if red, Wind.

7. If a dark Cloud be at Sun-rising, in which the Sun is soon after hid, it will dissolve it, and Rain will soon follow.

8. If a Cloud appear, and afterwards Vapors are seen to ascend up to it, it portends Rain.

9. If the Sun appear in the East, greater than it usually doth, it is a sign of Rain.

10. If a black Cloud appear in the West about Sun-setting, it will rain that night, or the morning following.

11. If Mists come down from the Hills, or descend from the Sky, and settle in the Vallies, it promiseth fair and hot weather. Also Mists ascending in the evening from the Earth, or Water, shew a hot day to follow.

12. Water-Fowls, (as Sea Gulls, Mergens, &c.) when they flock and fly together from the Sea towards the Shore. As also when Land-Fowls (as Crows, Swallows, &c.) when they fly from the Lands to the waters, beating the waters with their wings, foreshews Rain and Wind.

13. If the Circles about the Sun be red and broken, it portends Wind; if thick and dark, Wind, Snow, or Rain, and the same of the Circles about the Moon.

14. The Trefoil Grass, against Rain, swells in the stalk, and standeth more upright.

15. The Wincowpipe (growing in Stubble-fields) if you find it open in the morning, be sure of a fair day to follow.

16. Aches, Hurts, and Corns, do engrave against Rain, Snow, or Frost.

17. Worms coming out of the Earth, Moles casting up the Earth, Fleas biting more than ordinary, are evident signs of rain to follow.

18. Solid Bodies, as Stone and Wainscot, when they sweat, do foreshew Rain.

A Description of the Magnitudes, Motions and Distances of the Seven Planets

A Rgol, a laborious and Learned Astronomer, giveth this account of the Planets Motions and Distances, to wit,

	Saturn , Nine times.
	Jupiter , Fourteen times.
	Mars , Two thousand five hundred thirty five times
The Sun is greater then	Venus , Twelve hundred and seventy times.
	Mercury , Three thousand seven hundred and five times.
	The Moon , Ten thousand times.
	The Earth , One hundred ninety six times.
	Jupiter , The one half.
	Mars , Two times.
	Venus , Two hundred eighty six times
Saturn is greater then	Mercury , Four hundred and eighteen times.
	The Moon , One thousand one hundred, twenty two times
	The Earth , Twelve times.
	Mars , One hundred eighty two times
	Venus , Eighty four times.
Jupiter is greater then	Mercury , Two hundred sixty six times
	The Moon , Seven hundred and fourteen times
	The Earth , Fourteen times.

Venus

Venus is twice as big as Mars, and Three times as big as Mercury.

Mars contains Mercury once and a halfe.
